++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Bright or sunny spells developing, warm in the west.

Today:
A mostly cloudy start with a little drizzle for Speyside and Caithness. Most parts brightening up with sunny spells breaking through and feeling pleasantly warm in the west. Cooler for Shetland and the far north again.

Tonight:
A pleasant sunny evening for the west but cloud forming across Grampian, Lothian and the far north and this continues to spill west overnight. Breezier for east coasts.

Tuesday:
A cloudy start but brightness breaking through for most although it will take much of the day for cloud to clear in the east. Pleasantly warm in the west.

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Staying mainly dry and settled with the best of the sunshine in the west. East and far north rather cloudy at times.
